

Donald M. Fox, D.D.S., M.S.

Orthodontist, Diplomate of the American Board of Orthodontics
Adult & Child Braces & Early Interceptive Treatment Ages 6-11

Curriculum Vitae

Office Address: 915 Court Street, Clearwater, Florida 33756.

Office Number: (727) 44-SMILE (447-6453)

Website: www.reallystraightteeth.com

Title: Orthodontist, Board Certified, Diplomate of The American Board of Orthodontics.

20 Years Clinical Experience: Age range of treatment cases have been from ages 2-72.

Areas of expertise are diversified including comprehensive interceptive treatment for ages 4-11 (each done with a fully written out problem list and treatment plans with realistic goals that are timed dated to handle each problem list), orthodontic-orthognathic surgical case preparation. Oral habits correction and adult orthodontics involving gum disease. Fully trained in orthodontic administration and business management. Fully computer literate; Windows 2003, MacIntosh, Unix (Orthotrac – OMS systems); Internet literate.

Training (past education):

(1987), University of Tennessee, Masters of Science degree in Orthodontics & Dentofacial Orthopedics; one of the largest Master's of Science degree thesis written in the 75 year history of the University of Tennessee.

(1985), Medical College of Virginia, Virginia Commonwealth University, School of Dentistry, Doctor of Dental Surgery, (Magna Cum Laude); recipient of the Alpha Omega Award for graduating #1 out of a class of 115.

(1980), University of Richmond, Virginia, Graduated School of Biology.

(1978), University of Richmond, Virginia, Bachelor of Science degree chemistry.

Community Awards:

(2001), Donated $40,000 to Clearwater Aquarium to help with marine research and salvage of stranded and hurt marine wildlife.

(2000), Donated $40,000 to Clearwater Aquarium to help with marine research and salvage of stranded and hurt marine wildlife.

(2000), Donated $10,000 to the University of Tennessee Department of Orthodontics for the Faustin Weber Chair, to bring in well educated professors to the Orthodontic Department for further research and training.

(1997), Donated antique orthodontic books to the University of Tennessee Library in honor of Dr. Faustin Weber, who passed away the same year.

(1997), Donated 30 year old antique photography machine to the Tweed Foundation, Tucson, Arizona.

- (1995), Volunteer Award of the Virginia Home for Boys.
(1993), Businessman of the Year, given by the Richmond Career Educational Center.

Academic & Clinical Awards:

- (1993), Board Certified as a Diplomate of The American Board of Orthodontics.
(1993), Oxford's Who's Who.
(1988), Recipient of the American Association of Orthodontists 1988 Harry Sicher Award for the most meritorious first research in the United States and Canada (finding of birth defects from normal dosages of aspirin or acetaminophen taken during pregnancy; also found new method for the FDA to test all drugs on the market for birth defects).
(1988), Recipient of the Woodrow Powell Research Award, University of Tennessee, for special recognition of an original research investigation which has produced unique and significant knowledge for the specialty of orthodontics.
(1988), Recipient of the Chairman's Research Award on Orthodontics, University of Tennessee.
(1987), Declared Board Eligible by the American Board of Orthodontics, St. Louis, Missouri.
(1985), Selected into Omicron Kappa Upsilon Honorary Dental Society.
(1985), Recipient of The American Dental Society of Anesthesiology Award for outstanding achievements, contributions and performance in prosthodontics.
(1985), Recipient of The Southeastern Board of Prostheontists Award for outstanding achievements, contributions and performance in prosthodontics.
(1985), Recipient of the Finalist Award in the American College Scholarship Competition of the entire country's students recognized for academic achievement, motivation and leadership.
(1984), Recipient of the A.D. Williams Scholarship and Award during dental school.
(1983), Recipient of The American Cancer Society Oral Pathology/Pathology Award for the highest scores on 2 years of monthly examinations in dental school for every disease of the human body, every disease recognized in the human mouth along with Sterilization, AIDs and Hepatitis issues. (1981-1985), Letters of Accommodations, Academic Performance Committee, Medical College of Virginia.
(1981), Dean's List, Virginia Commonwealth University.

Academic & Professional Organizations:

- (1997 to present), Member of the Florida Dental Association.
(1997 to present), Member of the West Coast Dental Association.
(1997 to present), Member of the Upper Pinellas County Dental Association.
(1987 to present), Member of the University of Tennessee donation fund.
(1985 to present), Active member of the American Association of Orthodontists.

- (1987 to present), Active member of the Southern Association of Orthodontists.
- (1985 to present), Omicron Kappa Upsilon Honorary Dental Society.
- (1985 to present), The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi of the Chapter at Virginia Commonwealth University.
- (1985 to present), The Honorary Science Society of Sigma Zeta of the Chapter at Virginia Commonwealth University.
- (1985 to present), Selected as an Honorary member into the American Dental Society of Anesthesiologists.
- (1975 to 1980), Member of the American Chemical Society.

Research Experience:

(2006), Author of, Diet Of The Future diet book.

- (1987), University of Tennessee, Master's thesis: The Teratogenicity of Aspirin and Acetaminophen: Their Effects on the Craniofacial Complex.
- (1987), University of Tennessee, first to light cure a fixed lingual retainer wire to the lower front teeth that is still being used today.
- (1984 to 1985), Medical College of Virginia, Department of Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery, Neurosensory Dysfunction in Elective Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery & Trauma Patients.
- (1978), University of Richmond, Virginia, Repair of Damaged DNA in Bacteria with Visible Spectrums of Light.

Work Experience:

- (1987 – Present), Full time owner/orthodontist of Donald M. Fox, D.D.S., M.S., private practice.
- (1984 to 1985), Medical College of Virginia, Department of Oral & Maxillofacial surgery, biomedical research conducted.
- (1984), Volunteer in testing all previous oral surgery patients with neurosensory problems from facial trauma or elective surgery.
- (1981), Syntex Dental Corporation, Public Relations Representative: visited all dental offices from Richmond to Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Interests:

Computers (Windows, IBM, MacIntosh, Unix systems)

Photography

NFL Football (Tampa Bay Buccaneer's)

NASCAR Racing (Jeff Gordon fan)